Lane Guilliams was appointed as the director of alumni relations for the College of Natural Resources and Environment in January 2009.

She had previously worked for Hollins University and the Virginia Department of Conservation and Recreation. She currently serves on the College of Natural Resources and Environment (CNRE) Alumni Board and on the board of directors for Keep Virginia Beautiful. She has previously served on the board of the Upper Roanoke River Roundtable and various committees.

In her role as director of alumni relations, Guilliams maintains correspondence with college alumni. She gathers stories from alumni to share and creates opportunities to bring alumni together through such means as alumni events at conferences and the annual college homecoming. Guilliams also works with the college's student ambassadors, coordinates the CNRE Alumni Board, and helps promote the board's alumni ambassador and student mentor programs. In addition to her college role, Lane also works on events hosted by the Virginia Tech Alumni Association.

Guilliams received a B.S. in forestry in 1995 from Virginia Tech and an M.A. in museum studies in 2008 from the University of Oklahoma. She and her husband, Mike, reside in Roanoke, Va.
